Part IV Your Activities

1 Describe completely and in detail your past, present, and planned activities. Do not refer to or repeat the purposes in your organizing document.

For each past, present, or planned activity, include information that answers the following questions:

- a. What is the activity?
- b. Who conducts the activity?
- c. Where is the activity conducted?
- d. What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?
- e. How is the activity funded (for example, donations, fees, etc.) and what percentage of your overall expenses is allocated to this activity?
- f. How does the activity further your exempt purposes?

1. Fundraising and community outreach will be funded by donations and membership fees, and account for 10% of expenses. 30% of time is dedicated to fundraising and outreach efforts. Fundraising and outreach further the purposes of Brooklyn Donates Inc. since they allow for people and organizations interested in protecting small businesses from the effects of COVID-19 to contribute to the mission, as well as those who want to provide the economic structure for small businesses to rebuild and recover from the crisis. Brooklyn Donates Inc. fundraises, and collects donations from, individuals interested in maintaining and improving the economic health of the NYC restaurant industry, especially in light of the restrictions imposed due to COVID-19. Fundraising efforts are conducted by the directors through email, social media outreach, and the website. As the organization grows, staff will be hired to conduct fundraising activities. When restrictions on large gatherings are lifted, we plan to host a fundraising event such as dinners to encourage large scale donations. All fundraising activities are conducted within the boroughs of New York City, however we will also conduct web solicitations to people on our mailing lists, and those who may visit our website, or attend an event, from any jurisdiction. Community outreach efforts are conducted to find small businesses and individuals in crisis in underserved communities, and to encourage these businesses to apply. Examples of outreach efforts are the posting of signage in public areas, connecting on social media, and attending Business Improvement District meetings. The profits from selling branded merchandise are used as donations to further the mission by providing economic improvements to neighborhoods in need.

2. Administrative duties such as grant-writing, reviewing applications for funding, and posting on social media, account for 45% of the organization's time. Administrative duties account for 15% of total expenses, collected through membership fees, donations, and grants received. Brooklyn Donates Inc. will apply for grants for non profit organizations. The Directors of the corporation will apply for these grants, until a person on staff may be hired. This is conducted in Brooklyn, NY and is conducted online. These grants will be used to further the mission of Brooklyn Donates Inc., finance employee salaries, and develop the company. Brooklyn Donates Inc. will review applications from small businesses and individuals who apply for aid, and determine the need and chance of success if funding is provided. Applications will be considered from all sectors which have been negatively impacted by COVID-19, with an emphasis placed on small businesses. Applications will be reviewed considering whether the individual or business in need fosters a positive work environment, has significant social and cultural value to the neighborhood they serve, and has a long term plan for remaining viable during the COVID-19 pandemic, and in the ensuing recession, such as through implementing a delivery program. Businesses in neighborhoods disadvantaged in some way are considered strong candidates since economic development in these neighborhoods will provide necessary employment opportunities. Brooklyn Donates Inc. regularly and frequently posts on social media. We also write posts on our website about small businesses which need assistance during the COVID-19 crisis, and details how people can help specific small businesses in their neighborhoods survive and recover such as through donations, buying gift certificates, or ordering take-out. This allows us to engage with a diverse audience and gauge impressions of businesses which are impactful in their neighborhoods, as well as the different levels of aid that small businesses will require to recover from this public health disaster. Posting on social media and the organization's website furthers exempt purposes because it develops a framework of community support and interest in the mission of economic development.

3. 75% of Brooklyn Donates Inc.'s budget is allocated to the recipients of donations. Brooklyn Donates Inc. will determine how money will be allocated and distribute monetary aid received through donations to small business owners and individuals selected through the application process. The distribution of funds will require 25% of the total time, including banking processes, distributing money to small businesses, and following up with the businesses by interviewing employees and reviewing their books to ensure appropriate use of funds. Distributing funds to small businesses is significant for the exempt purposes of the organization, as it allows for the economic development of communities impacted by disasters or otherwise disadvantaged. In the short term of the organization, this will be carried out in New York City. Distribution of funds is overseen by the Directors.
